COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Hurrah for Sunny Side.
Alex Toliver is on the sick list.
Rev. Billie Davis spent Friday night with A. B. Swango.

E. O. Taulbee and Curtis Rose paid us a pleasant trip last week.

Miss Emma Cox was visiting her friends and relatives at Glencarin this week.

Prof. Cord and Ed. Taulbee passed through Toliver en route to Hazel Green.

Harry Perkins was shaking hands with friends in Toliver and Clifty last week.

Dr. J. M. Kash extracted some teeth for Allie Landrum which gave relief immediately.

Jim Hanks and wife, of Campton, were visiting F. Cox's family Sunday last.

Bro. Billie Davis gave us an interesting talk at prayer meeting Friday night.

"Shiner" had the privilege of casting a "ray" on the "Drake," last Sunday.

Misses Mollie Clark and Rilda Cox were pleasant guests of Miss Etta Swango Friday night.

Bro. B. M. Mannin has just returned from a protracted visit at Morehead and other points. I wonder what is the attraction down there.

Mrs. Margaret Lawson, whose illness has been reported several times, is at this writing much better and visiting her parents, A. B. Landrum and family.

O, say Susie Sunbeam don't let suspicion enter your mind. You are right, it takes a great deal of music to do me, and if you'll promise me some music I'll call at Sunny Side soon.

Quite a number attended the campmeeting at Grassy from Toliver, among those were: W. A. Oldfield and family, J. B. McNabb and family, J. J. Catron and family, H. A. Mannin, Misses Lucy McNabb and Etta Swango, W. M. Sweeney, Cletis Swango and ye scribe. We had a good time, you bet.

Aug 6. "SHINER."

DAYSBO RO DOINGS.

Miss Callie Oney passed through Daysboro Friday.

Mrs. M. J. Oney spent the day with Mrs. J. W. Paulliee, Sunday.

Quite a number from this place attended the campmeeting Sunday.

Miss Clara Nickell spent a few pleasant hours with ye scribe Saturday.

Rev. Dawson left Monday for West Liberty. We wish him much success.

Miss Addie Shokey, of Lee City, is visiting her brother, Alex Shokey, of this place.

The meeting at this place, which has been conducted by Rev. Dawson, closed Sunday night.

Harry Perkins, of Lacy creek, was the guest of Willie Alexander from Saturday until Sunday.

Its no wonder Susie Sunbeam that your letter is always in the first column, because they are so interesting.

Aug. 7.

LENA.

SUNNY SIDE.

Ova Swango and charming young wife were out driving Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lula Taulbee was a pleasant visitor at the Sunny Side home Saturday.

Misses Callie Oney and Lula Taulbee left together for Frozen creek Sunday afternoon.

John Bise, of the Springs neighborhood, gave Sunny Side a business call Saturday.

"Lena," we missed your newsy letter last week. You must write every week, we enjoy them so much.

"Charlie," one of your live energetic traveling correspondents, gave us a brief but pleasant call Saturday.

Mrs. Newt Lacy, who has been on the sick list for the past two or three weeks, is improving and will soon be herself again.

Arbury Brooks, in company with Crockett Coldiron, of South Hazel Green, made a business trip to Breathitt county last week.

Miss Minnie L. Day, one of Wolfe county's most enthusiastic teachers, in company with Lanford Craft, of Index, gave us a pleasant call Saturday evening.

Mother! How much there is in that word. If there is one earthly blessing for which more than an other we feel thankful for, it is still spared to me, to whom I can apply that endearing name.

Brother Dickey, of Campton, passed through this section Friday on his way to Pinhook. This good brother is a great church worker, and a man who loves his religion; his daily walks in life is a big sermon for the people. Of such is our ideal christian.

Thank you, Spicy Bill, for your kind invitation to come to Spencer, and will gladly do so as soon as an opportunity presents itself. We know that we would enjoy ourselves with our old schoolmates there, and we could locate you also.

Your writer had the pleasure of calling on sister Pike Saturday. Found her very sad over the recent death of her dear mother. We can think of the coming of death, and how it would be and knowing that it always aims a bright light, but imagination will fall short, and we feel alarmed when we find that it is headed for one of our devoted parents. The world will lose its brightness, and our home its joy; but God is the best medical skill. Cheer up my dear sister, your hold on this world is broken, but God is leading and you can follow after, you can overtake your mother on the top of Zion's hill or life will be a failure. Jesus wants to tell you what this strange providence means, and it will heaven to hear it. May God's best blessing be on you, my dear sister, and your lonely father left behind.

Aug. 7. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Harry Cecil, of Grassy, was the guest of his grandparents Tuesday night.

Samuel Goodwin and wife, of Ezel, spent one night last week with Harrison Swango and wife.

James Cain, wife and little son, of Carlisle, arrived Saturday for a recuperation at the Springs.

A Mr. Case, of Fleming county, is now the guest of Harry Swango and drinking Swango water.

Lanford Craft, who is teaching at Index, Morgan county, spent part of Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

Judge G. T. Center, of Stillwater, was around with us Friday in the interest of the roads, which are in no good condition.

C. F. Combs, of Campton, who has been assisting H. F. Pieratt, of Hazel Green, in marking the telephone line through here, gave us a very pleasant call Thursday.

M. T. Bybee, Matt Cornelison and John Baumstark, jr., agents for the Baumstark stoneware house at Waco, Ky., camped with us Thursday night on their way to deliver goods they had sold to S. C. Alexander and Oscar Fallen, of Daysboro.

Aug. 6. UNO.

MORGAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

We had a pleasant chat with Shinner Sunday. He seemed to be enjoying the campmeeting fine.

Johnny Blankenship, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is able to be out again.

Lonzo Craft attended the campmeeting Sunday, and caught one of the finest species of Byrds we ever saw.

There were supposed to be about 1000 people on the camping ground Sunday. It was the largest crowd seen together for some time.

Ye writer visited Maytown Tuesday. Although we have been in Kentucky for quite awhile, this was our first visit to the beautiful little town.

We have been attending the campmeeting, and did not get in a letter last week, but hope the editor will excuse us this time, and we will promise not to do it any more.

H. H. Blankenship, who has been visiting relatives on Licking, returned Sunday, bringing with him Miss Lizzie Long, the charming sister of Mrs. Blankenship. Miss Lizzie will remain in our midst for some weeks.

Died, Tuesday night, July 31, at 10 o'clock, Mrs. Darkess Tyler, aged about 65 years. She was a member of the Baptist church, and a good christian woman. She suffered but a short time, being sick only about five days. She leaves a husband and several children, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Aug. 7. EINNIM.

EZEL DOTS.

F. M. Lykins, of Malone, was in town Saturday on business.

Burford Pieratt, of West Liberty, has removed into the property vacated by Bro. Combs.

Misses Clara Pieratt, Lizzie Cox and Miss Browning have returned to their respective homes.

Berry Pieratt, who has been out drumming for the past two years, is at home for awhile.

C. S. Sample and wife, of Lacy creek, were visiting Mr. Sample's parents Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. H. V. Nickell, of Ardmore, I. T., surprised his parents by stepping in home last Friday evening.

Our streets and roadways are being crossed considerably by telephone lines. The line to West Liberty will be completed this week, and Dr. A. B. Nickell has just put up a line from his home to that of his son-in-law, Millard Dennis, on Greasy.

Rev. D. G. Combs' family removed to Morehead last week to make that place their home. We were truly sorry to see them go. Ezel has lost a good citizen, and the young people will certainly miss two social lights, Cora and Lena. We wish them all pleasures possible, and trust they will sometimes think of "Ye olden time" in our little town.

BUSHTON, ILLS., July 31, 1900.
Brother Cooper, you will find enclosed 65 cents for which please send THE HERALD and Farm Journal to Jimmie Hill, Fair Grange, Ills. They say that they must have THE HERALD for it gives him the news of his childhood home. We have very warm weather now, and there is a great deal of sickness.

Broom corn cutting will be here in about two weeks, and Fayett James said that good hands would be in demand.

Mrs. Eveline Ohlar, of Paris, Ills., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alice Fraizer.

Little Sunbeam we are glad to read your letters, they give us so much news from Sunny Side. Continue to write every week, for your letters helps us on our way. I don't think I ever saw a cloud on your face.

News is scarce this week. Think I will have more subscribers for THE HERALD soon.

Best wishes for the school and THE HERALD. As ever your friend.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

In our paper today appears the announcement of Alfred Miller, who aspires to the office of jailor of Wolfe county. Mr. Miller has always been a democrat and in his precinct, Lee City, is considered a wheel horse, as he is an indefatigable worker. Weather never prevents his going or stays his coming when a democratic candidate is involved, and though a poor man he never fails to contribute his mite to the good cause of democracy. He was a candidate three years ago for the same position, and he and his friends claim that he was then fraudulently defeated—in short, foully dealt with—or he would today have been our jailor. But, notwithstanding he voted and worked for the ticket, and has never had ill-feeling towards the party to the extent that he could scratch a single nominee. He is a simon pure Bryan-Beckham democrat, and will be found in line in November whether he gets the nomination or not. But, in respect to his past service and the fact that he is a cripple, having lost a leg some ten years since, he asks the nomination and promises in event of election to give it his entire time, and those who have known him always assure us that he will make as good a jailor as Wolfe ever had if indeed he does not prove the best. He has been unable to make a personal canvass, but appeals in this way to the democratic voters and for their suffrage in the primary will ever feel grateful.

Once more we appeal to the democrats of Wolfe county to give us the nomination to the office of assessor, and we ask it not because we are desirous of holding office. No, indeed. Far from it. As before stated, we want this office that the salary may enable us to live without encroaching upon the earnings of the paper so that we can use the income from the paper in making it better. We are ambitious to publish the best country paper in Kentucky, but with the meager support it gets from the people of the mountains we can not do so. Could we have the office of assessor, and use the salary of that office to live upon, we could use the earnings of the paper to improve it. Will you help us in this matter?

The gold democratic committeemen of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin, all agree with Old Brother Simon Boliver Buckner that there is no more use for a third ticket in the field than a wagon with a fifth wheel.

From all signs at present, Wm. Jennings Bryan is more popular than ever before. The other barrel that Hanna is filling will not be sufficient to carry his "Little Willie" through in November.

Among the announcements in our paper today is that of W. G. W. Cruvey, who aspires to the office of assessor. Mr. Cruvey held the position of assessor for two terms, and is for that reason better posted in affairs attending the office of assessor than any man that has yet asked for the place. Besides he is a cripple, having lost his left arm years ago, and he is therefore unable to do work on a farm or any manual labor. He is a simon pure democrat. Never scratched his ticket, and always done all in his power for the success of the party. He is a good citizen in all things, and is elected will make the county one of the best officials it ever had. With this we leave him in the hands of the democratic party, confident that they will treat him right.

While Senator Foraker stiffens his neck and holds his head bravely and keeps step to the music of Hanna's band, doesn't look quite at home in the procession.

The Seventh district congressional muddle has been referred back to the people, but Mr. Moody, who claims to be the nominee of the Paris convention, says he will stand to his puncheon and claim his rights. Mr. Trimble bolted the Paris convention, and he should abide the consequences and retire from politics.

McKINLEY asked, "Who will pull down the American flag?" and at the same time he presented Great Britain with a portion of Alaska.

MONEY may not bring happiness. Hanna will find it so, after the November election.

"WHITAR" ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It soils neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.

THE HERALD.

A FARM JOURNAL

Great Offer. From now to Dec, 1903, Nearly 5 Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

This offer should be accepted without delay.

The hot weather has something to do with the scarcity of news.

A. M. Miller, of Lee City, candidate for jailer, was in town Wednesday.

There was about 1000 people at the campmeeting at the Caskey school house on Sunday last.

W. T. Swango last week shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati, and accompanied the shipment.

Hon. Finley Fogg, of West Liberty, passed through here Sunday en route to Campton, and returned Monday.

Monday was county court day at Campton, and quite a crowd attended from this place. The town was full of candidates.

Robert Kash went to McCausey Saturday evening, where he visited his mother, Mrs. John Craven, until Sunday evening.

Sam Wilson, the boss painter, left Monday for Frenchburg, Ky. Sam says he has several large jobs of painting in Menefee.

John M. Rose and wife left Wednesday morning for Stillwater. Mr. Rose went on business while Mrs. Rose will visit friends.

There will be preaching at Lee City next Saturday night and Sunday morning. The services will be conducted by Rev. H. D. Adams.

H. F. Pieratt and wife went to Campton Sunday evening and returned Monday. They were the guests of Mrs. Pieratt's father, S. S. Combs.

Robert Kash is agent for the Home Steam Laundry, of Mt. Sterling, and will send his basket every two weeks. Shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., laundered in the best style.

Rev. H. D. Adams returned home the latter part of last week from Slade, Ky., where he had been holding a series of meetings. Eighteen new members were added to the church.

Hazel Green was very quiet on Sunday last. The cause of it was on account of all who could get a conveyance of any kind, took in the campmeeting at the Caskey school house.

LETTERS TO PARENTS.

BY SAM WILSON.

Sept. the 11th, year 1900.
Prof. William H. Cord
Will open the college doors again,
And parents can afford
To send their sons and daughters,
And fit them for the strife
To battle with the many scenes,
In the great arena of life.

O! fathers, mothers, don't delay
While precious is the time;
This opportunity, seize at once
While in their youthful prime;
O, send them then to Hazel Green,
The educational shrine,
Where learning's purest, brightest ray
Will on them ever shine.

More than three hundred teachers
Can truthfully declare,
This gem adorns their thankful hearts,
An emblem rich and fair,
And carries them o'er life's stormy wave,
No matter in what clime
The sparkle of this brilliant gem
Is shining all the time.

Two handsome watches will be given
Of gold pure and refined,
At the closing of the school in June,
So bear this in your mind.
Let every young man try his best
And woman do likewise,
To win these noble, generous gifts
From Hon. W. O. Mize.

Teachers' Institute.

Resolutions of the Wolfe County Teachers' Institute held at Campton, July 23rd to 27th, 1900.

Resolved 1st—That we extend to Prof. Elam our thanks for his untiring, devoted and efficient work as our instructor.

2nd—That we tender to Prof. J. J. Dickey our thanks for his co-operation with us as teachers, and his untiring interest in the work of the institute.

3rd—That we appreciate the successful efforts of Superintendent Lacey in making the institute a success, also the patient and efficient work of J. W. Taulbee as secretary.

4th—That we, through Prof. E. E. Bishop, for his appreciation of the school work in giving to the teachers of Wolfe county the use of the school building during week of institute.

5th—That we extend to the people of Campton and surrounding country our heartfelt thanks for their hospitality and kindness during week of institute.

6th—That we condemn the present system of employing teachers in the state of Kentucky, and ask the next general assembly to devise some plan or enact some law that will stop bribery, corruption, etc., in the employment of teachers.

7th—That we, as teachers of Wolfe county, condemn the press for maligning and abusing the mountain people as a whole, as outlaws and uncivilized.

W. H. CHAMBERS,
JONATHAN E. CHILDERS, Com.
E. T. KASH,

Track laying along the Ohio and Kentucky railroad will begin about the 15th of the present month. From the point where it intersects with the L. & E. to Lee City the grading has been practically completed, and as soon as the rails are laid down the iron for the bridge across Kentucky river will be hauled to their destination and put in place, after which the road will be speedily constructed.

The editor of this paper paid a flying visit to the little city of Lee City on Saturday last, and was surprised to see the many evidences of business thrift and prosperity abounding. It was the first time we ever had the pleasure of visiting the place, which we think bids fair to be quite a business place as soon as the Ohio and Kentucky railroad is built to that point, and that will be within the next few months.

The Outlook for Hazel Green Academy.

The outlook for a large enrollment and attendance at Hazel Green Academy during the next session is very encouraging. More pupils than usual, are making inquiries about the course of study, the faculty, and the boarding department, and they are making known that they will patronize Hazel Green Academy during the coming session. The courses of study will be full and complete; the faculty will be equal to the best; the boarding department will be unexcelled. The session of 1900-1901 will doubtless be the best of any in its history. Do not fail to be present and enroll on the first day—Tuesday, September 11, 1900.

There are 139 illustrations in Biggle Cow Book, many of them made from photographs from life. There are eight colored paintings of as many different breeds. Biggle Cow Book is cream, rich Jersey cream—you ought to have it. Price is 50 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

Music at Hazel Green Academy.

Miss Mabel Grey Cross, who was in charge of the music class of Hazel Green Academy during the last session, will be in charge during the next session. She need no words of commendation from our pen, for her work here among her pupils speaks for her ability as a teacher. She is a thorough up to date teacher of music, and every one should take advantage of the opportunity offered here for obtaining a musical education. Let every pupil who wants such an education be ready to begin in her classes at the opening of the session—Tuesday, September 11th.

Among the registered guests at the Day House last week we note the following: Frank Stamper, Pat Howe and Weed Congleton, of Campton; George Salley, of the county; Dr. Breck Taulbee, wife and little boy, of Mt. Sterling; Mrs. John Craven, of McCausey, and John Lynch, of the world at large.

Henry Wilson, of Davesboro, on Thursday last bought of John Gose, of the same neighborhood, two blood bay geldings, half brothers and 6 years old each, for $200 cash in hand. They are 16 hands high with black manes and tails, work any where and are as sound as Spanish mill dollars.

A campmeeting will be held at Ezel, commencing Wednesday, Aug. 15th., under the supervision of Rev. Pike of the Methodist denomination. There will be several eminent ministers there who will take part in the services. Everybody is invited.

"An Empty Sack Cannot Stand Upright." Neither can poor, weak, thin blood nourish and sustain the physical system. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard purifier and true tonic for the blood. Hood's Pills do not gripe. All druggists, 25c.

Mrs. G. B. and W. L. Swango left for Nicholas county last Friday to attend the Dering campmeeting and hear Rev. Sam Jones, as well as to visit friends of G. B. Swango at Morefield.

Died, on Sunday morning at his residence on Lacy creek, Morgan county, H. M. Lacy, aged about 67. Mr. Lacy is the father of the wife of our worthy blacksmith, J. B. Davis.

John Higgins, colored, who has been ill with lung trouble for some time, had a relapse the other day, and is quite sick at the present.

John Pieratt requests us to make the announcement that he has leased a fine gray jack, which wants the farmers to call and see.

Mrs. John Craven, of Mt. Sterling, visited her sons, Willie and Robert, from Saturday until Monday.

We are one day late with our paper this week on account of the illness of our printer.

TRAGIC DEATH.

The Story of An Eye Witness to the Death of Gen. Lunar in the Philippines.

PANQUI, P. L., June 8, 1900.

To the Editor of THE HERALD: I send you the story of an eye witness to the death of Gen. Lunar in the Philippines. The story was given me in Spanish by Lt. Col. Abecellio, first on the staff of Gen. Lunar at that time. Gen. Funston was leading the advance up the railroad north from Manila during the months of April and May 1899, and the first of May found our boys in the town of San Fernando, about twenty miles north of Manila. During an attack on this place Gen. Lunar was dangerously wounded. The following story by Col. Abecellio will explain all that transpired from that time on to the day of his death, one month afterward: "The fighting was very hot," said the colonel, "and Gen. Lunar and staff were in a very exposed position. Lunar was sitting on his pony with his field glass directing the fire of his troops against the American lines. I was just behind him, and was intently watching the movements of the enemy. I could plainly see, by the aid of my glasses, the faces of Gen. Funston and staff about one mile from our lines. Gen. Lunar seemed to be directing the fire on Funston and staff, instead of the American soldiers. While the firing was warmest, Lunar turned to me and gravely remarked, that 'Funston was a brave man.' He had hardly uttered the words when a Springfield ball struck him in the right side, seriously wounding him. He fell from his horse in an unconscious condition. I sprang from my horse and restored him to life again by administering small quantities of brandy, the native drink. After he came to, I carried him off the field to a secluded village, miles away, where he was nursed for one month under my eye, before he was able to return to duty. Aguinaldo had been driven by this time to his mountain capital, Bayambau, on the Rio Grande river, one hundred miles north of Manila. Gen. Lunar and I went under disguise to that place, and reported for duty June 2d. He was at once assigned to his command and ordered to San Isidro, a town several miles southeast of Bayambau in the heart of the mountains. We arrived at that place after two days hard marching without food or rest. The evening we arrived at our destination, Lunar received orders from Aguinaldo to come back to Bayambau immediately with his entire command. He being tired, sick and not being fully recovered from his wounds, refused to comply with the order from his chief. Aguinaldo at once sent one of his captains to investigate the matter, for he suspected him of being in league with the Americans. The captain arrived and proceeded to pour forth upon the head of the gallant Lunar vile epithets, too dirty for a decent man to use. A quarrel was the result, and the captain ordered him under arrest by the order of Gen. Aguinaldo. Lunar resented this insult by striking him the Captain and placing him in irons. That night he managed to escape, and hired two cowardly cut-throats to kill the general next morning. The following morning, June 8th, Lunar and I were walking in front of the convent when we were fired upon by the two cut-throats employed to kill us. Gen. Lunar was shot through by a Mauser bullet, but managed to keep his feet, and pulling his gun succeeded in killing one of his slayers before the second ball ended his life."

It was a horrible sight. After he fell, two soldiers severed his head from his body and pitched it into a ditch near by. I went out and covered it with earth. Thus ended the career of the truest, bravest officers in the Insurgent army, Aguinaldo not excepted. I took command after his death, and surrendered the whole command to a Captain Rice, of the American army the next day. I am now a peaceful citizen of Luzon, and am anxious for American government.

This is the story given me by the above named Colonel, who is the most intelligent man I have ever met in the Philippines. He is of Spanish descent, and has a fine education. He is now a rice merchant, and it was during his stay at this place I met him, and heard the above story from his own lips. He showed me the receipt of his surrender to Capt. Rice; also his parole. Very respectfully,

GEO. C. TAULBEE,

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Hurrah for Sunny Side.
Alex Toliver is on the sick list.
Rev. Billie Davis spent Friday night with A. B. Swango.

E. O. Taulbee and Curtis Rose paid us a pleasant trip last week.

Miss Emma Cox was visiting her friends and relatives at Glencarin this week.

Prof. Cord and Ed. Taulbee passed through Toliver en route to Hazel Green.

Harry Perkins was shaking hands with friends in Toliver and Clifty last week.

Dr. J. M. Kash extracted some teeth for Allie Landrum which gave relief immediately.

Jim Hanks and wife, of Campton, were visiting F. Cox's family Sunday last.

Bro. Billie Davis gave us an interesting talk at prayer meeting Friday night.

"Shiner" had the privilege of casting a "ray" on the "Drake," last Sunday.

Misses Mollie Clark and Rilda Cox were pleasant guests of Miss Etta Swango Friday night.

Bro. B. M. Mannin has just returned from a protracted visit at Morehead and other points. I wonder what is the attraction down there.

Mrs. Margaret Lawson, whose illness has been reported several times, is at this writing much better and visiting her parents, A. B. Landrum and family.

O, say Susie Sunbeam don't let suspicion enter your mind. You are right, it takes a great deal of music to do me, and if you'll promise me some music I'll call at Sunny Side soon.

Quite a number attended the campmeeting at Grassy from Toliver, among those were: W. A. Oldfield and family, J. B. McNabb and family, J. J. Catron and family, H. A. Mannin, Misses Lucy McNabb and Etta Swango, W. M. Sweeney, Cletis Swango and ye scribe. We had a good time, you bet.

Aug 6. "SHINER."

DAYSBO RO DOINGS.

Miss Callie Oney passed through Daysboro Friday.

Mrs. M. J. Oney spent the day with Mrs. J. W. Paulliee, Sunday.

Quite a number from this place attended the campmeeting Sunday.

Miss Clara Nickell spent a few pleasant hours with ye scribe Saturday.

Rev. Dawson left Monday for West Liberty. We wish him much success.

Miss Addie Shokey, of Lee City, is visiting her brother, Alex Shokey, of this place.

The meeting at this place, which has been conducted by Rev. Dawson, closed Sunday night.

Harry Perkins, of Lacy creek, was the guest of Willie Alexander from Saturday until Sunday.

Its no wonder Susie Sunbeam that your letter is always in the first column, because they are so interesting.

Aug. 7. LENA.

SUNNY SIDE.

Ova Swango and charming young wife were out driving Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lula Taulbee was a pleasant visitor at the Sunny Side home Saturday.

Misses Callie Oney and Lula Taulbee left together for Frozen creek Sunday afternoon.

John Bise, of the Springs neighborhood, gave Sunny Side a business call Saturday.

"Lena," we missed your newsy letter last week. You must write every week, we enjoy them so much.

"Charlie," one of your live energetic traveling correspondents, gave us a brief but pleasant call Saturday.

Mrs. Newt Lacy, who has been on the sick list for the past two or three weeks, is improving and will soon be herself again.

Arbury Brooks, in company with Crockett Coldiron, of South Hazel Green, made a business trip to Breathitt county last week.

Miss Minnie L. Day, one of Wolfe county's most enthusiastic teachers, in company with Lanford Craft, of Index, gave us a pleasant call Saturday evening.

Mother! How much there is in that word. If there is one earthly blessing for which more than an other we feel thankful for, it is still spared to me, to whom I can apply that endearing name.

Brother Dickey, of Campton, passed through this section Friday on his way to Pinhook. This good brother is a great church worker, and a man who loves his religion; his daily walks in life is a big sermon for the people. Of such is our ideal christian.

Thank you, Spicy Bill, for your kind invitation to come to Spencer, and will gladly do so as soon as an opportunity presents itself. We know that we would enjoy ourselves with our old schoolmates there, and we could locate you also.

Your writer had the pleasure of calling on sister Pike Saturday. Found her very sad over the recent death of her dear mother. We can think of the coming of death, and how it would be and knowing that it always aims a bright light, but imagination will fall short, and we feel alarmed when we find that it is headed for one of our devoted parents. The world will lose its brightness, and our home its joy; but God is the best medical skill. Cheer up my dear sister, your hold on this world is broken, but God is leading and you can follow after, you can overtake your mother on the top of Zion's hill or life will be a failure. Jesus wants to tell you what this strange providence means, and it will heaven to hear it. May God's best blessing be on you, my dear sister, and your lonely father left behind.

Aug. 7. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Harry Cecil, of Grassy, was the guest of his grandparents Tuesday night.

Samuel Goodwin and wife, of Ezel, spent one night last week with Harrison Swango and wife.

James Cain, wife and little son, of Carlisle, arrived Saturday for a recuperation at the Springs.

A Mr. Case, of Fleming county, is now the guest of Harry Swango and drinking Swango water.

Lanford Craft, who is teaching at Index, Morgan county, spent part of Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

Judge G. T. Center, of Stillwater, was around with us Friday in the interest of the roads, which are in no good condition.

C. F. Combs, of Campton, who has been assisting H. F. Pieratt, of Hazel Green, in marking the telephone line through here, gave us a very pleasant call Thursday.

M. T. Bybee, Matt Cornelison and John Baumstark, jr., agents

for the Baumstark stoneware house at Waco, Ky., camped with us Thursday night on their way to deliver goods they had sold to S. C. Alexander and Oscar Fallen, of Daysboro.

MORGAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

We had a pleasant chat with Shinner Sunday. He seemed to be enjoying the campmeeting fine.

Johnny Blankenship, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is able to be out again.

Lonzo Craft attended the campmeeting Sunday, and caught one of the finest species of Byrds we ever saw.

There were supposed to be about 1000 people on the camping ground Sunday. It was the largest crowd seen together for some time.

Ye writer visited Maytown Tuesday. Although we have been in Kentucky for quite awhile, this was our first visit to the beautiful little town.

We have been attending the campmeeting, and did not get in a letter last week, but hope the editor will excuse us this time, and we will promise not to do it any more.

H. H. Blankenship, who has been visiting relatives on Licking, returned Sunday, bringing with him Miss Lizzie Long, the charming sister of Mrs. Blankenship. Miss Lizzie will remain in our midst for some weeks.

Died, Tuesday night, July 31, at 10 o'clock, Mrs. Darkess Tyler, aged about 65 years. She was a member of the Baptist church, and a good christian woman. She suffered but a short time, being sick only about five days. She leaves a husband and several children, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Aug. 7. EINNIM.

EZEL DOTS.

F. M. Lykins, of Malone, was in town Saturday on business.

Burford Pieratt, of West Liberty, has removed into the property vacated by Bro. Combs.

Misses Clara Pieratt, Lizzie Cox and Miss Browning have returned to their respective homes.

Berry Pieratt, who has been out drumming for the past two years, is at home for awhile.

C. S. Sample and wife, of Lacy creek, were visiting Mr. Sample's parents Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. H. V. Nickell, of Ardmore, I. T., surprised his parents by stepping in home last Friday evening.

Our streets and roadways are being crossed considerably by telephone lines. The line to West Liberty will be completed this week, and Dr. A. B. Nickell has just put up a line from his home to that of his son-in-law, Millard Dennis, on Greasy.

Rev. D. G. Combs' family removed to Morehead last week to make that place their home. We were truly sorry to see them go. Ezel has lost a good citizen, and the young people will certainly miss two social lights, Cora and Lena. We wish them all pleasures possible, and trust they will sometimes think of "Ye olden time" in our little town.

BUSHTON, ILLS., July 31, 1900.
Brother Cooper, you will find enclosed 65 cents for which please send THE HERALD and Farm Journal to Jimmie Hill, Fair Grange, Ills. They say that they must have THE HERALD for it gives him the news of his childhood home. We have very warm weather now, and there is a great deal of sickness.

Broom corn cutting will be here in about two weeks, and Fayett James said that good hands would be in demand.

Mrs. Eveline Ohlar, of Paris, Ills., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alice Fraizer.

Little Sunbeam we are glad to read your letters, they give us so much news from Sunny Side. Continue to write every week, for your letters helps us on our way. I don't think I ever saw a cloud on your face.

News is scarce this week. Think I will have more subscribers for THE HERALD soon.

Best wishes for the school and THE HERALD. As ever your friend.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

In our paper today appears the announcement of Alfred Miller, who aspires to the office of jailor of Wolfe county. Mr. Miller has always been a democrat and in his precinct, Lee City, is considered a wheel horse, as he is an indefatigable worker. Weather never prevents his going or stays his coming when a democratic candidate is involved, and though a poor man he never fails to contribute his mite to the good cause of democracy. He was a candidate three years ago for the same position, and he and his friends claim that he was then fraudulently defeated—in short, foully dealt with—or he would today have been our jailor. But, notwithstanding he voted and worked for the ticket, and has never had ill-feeling towards the party to the extent that he could scratch a single nominee. He is a simon pure Bryan-Beckham democrat, and will be found in line in November whether he gets the nomination or not. But, in respect to his past service and the fact that he is a cripple, having lost a leg some ten years since, he asks the nomination and promises in event of election to give it his entire time, and those who have known him always assure us that he will make as good a jailor as Wolfe ever had if indeed he does not prove the best. He has been unable to make a personal canvass, but appeals in this way to the democratic voters and for their suffrage in the primary will ever feel grateful.

Once more we appeal to the democrats of Wolfe county to give us the nomination to the office of assessor, and we ask it not because we are desirous of holding office. No, indeed. Far from it. As before stated, we want this office that the salary may enable us to live without encroaching upon the earnings of the paper so that we can use the income from the paper in making it better. We are ambitious to publish the best country paper in Kentucky, but with the meager support it gets from the people of the mountains we can not do so. Could we have the office of assessor, and use the salary of that office to live upon, we could use the earnings of the paper to improve it. Will you help us in this matter?

The gold democratic committeemen of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin, all agree with Old Brother Simon Boliver Buckner that there is no more use for a third ticket in the field than a wagon with a fifth wheel.

From all signs at present, Wm. Jennings Bryan is more popular than ever before. The other barrel that Hanna is filling will not be sufficient to carry his "Little Willie" through in November.

Among the announcements in our paper today is that of W. G. W. Cruvey, who aspires to the office of assessor. Mr. Cruvey held the position of assessor for two terms, and is for that reason better posted in affairs attending the office of assessor than any man that has yet asked for the place. Besides he is a cripple, having lost his left arm years ago, and he is therefore unable to do work on a farm or any manual labor. He is a simon pure democrat. Never scratched his ticket, and always done all in his power for the success of the party. He is a good citizen in all things, and is elected will make the county one of the best officials it ever had. With this we leave him in the hands of the democratic party, confident that they will treat him right.

While Senator Foraker stiffens his neck and holds his head bravely and keeps step to the music of Hanna's band, doesn't look quite at home in the procession.

The Seventh district congressional muddle has been referred back to the people, but Mr. Moody, who claims to be the nominee of the Paris convention, says he will stand to his puncheon and claim his rights. Mr. Trimble bolted the Paris convention, and he should abide the consequences and retire from politics.

McKINLEY asked, "Who will pull down the American flag?" and at the same time he presented Great Britain with a portion of Alaska.

MONEY may not bring happiness. Hanna will find it so, after the November election.

"WHITAR" ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It soils neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.

THE HERALD.

A FARM JOURNAL

Great Offer. From now to Dec, 1903, Nearly 5 Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

This offer should be accepted without delay.

The hot weather has something to do with the scarcity of news.

A. M. Miller, of Lee City, candidate for jailer, was in town Wednesday.

There was about 1000 people at the campmeeting at the Caskey school house on Sunday last.

W. T. Swango last week shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati, and accompanied the shipment.

Hon. Finley Fogg, of West Liberty, passed through here Sunday en route to Campton, and returned Monday.

Monday was county court day at Campton, and quite a crowd attended from this place. The town was full of candidates.

Robert Kash went to McCausey Saturday evening, where he visited his mother, Mrs. John Craven, until Sunday evening.

Sam Wilson, the boss painter, left Monday for Frenchburg, Ky. Sam says he has several large jobs of painting in Menefee.

John M. Rose and wife left Wednesday morning for Stillwater. Mr. Rose went on business while Mrs. Rose will visit friends.

There will be preaching at Lee City next Saturday night and Sunday morning. The services will be conducted by Rev. H. D. Adams.

H. F. Pieratt and wife went to Campton Sunday evening and returned Monday. They were the guests of Mrs. Pieratt's father, S. S. Combs.

Robert Kash is agent for the Home Steam Laundry, of Mt. Sterling, and will send his basket every two weeks. Shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., laundered in the best style.

Rev. H. D. Adams returned home the latter part of last week from Slade, Ky., where he had been holding a series of meetings. Eighteen new members were added to the church.

Hazel Green was very quiet on Sunday last. The cause of it was on account of all who could get a conveyance of any kind, took in the campmeeting at the Caskey school house.

LETTERS TO PARENTS.

BY SAM WILSON.

Sept. the 11th, year 1900.
Prof. William H. Cord
Will open the college doors again,
And parents can afford
To send their sons and daughters,
And fit them for the strife
To battle with the many scenes,
In the great arena of life.

O! fathers, mothers, don't delay
While precious is the time;
This opportunity, seize at once
While in their youthful prime;
O, send them then to Hazel Green,
The educational shrine,
Where learning's purest, brightest ray
Will on them ever shine.

More than three hundred teachers
Can truthfully declare,
This gem adorns their thankful hearts,
An emblem rich and fair,
And carries them o'er life's stormy wave,
No matter in what clime
The sparkle of this brilliant gem
Is shining all the time.

Two handsome watches will be given
Of gold pure and refined,
At the closing of the school in June,
So bear this in your mind.
Let every young man try his best
And woman do likewise,
To win these noble, generous gifts
From Hon. W. O. Mize.

Teachers' Institute.

Resolutions of the Wolfe County Teachers' Institute held at Campton, July 23rd to 27th, 1900.

Resolved 1st—That we extend to Prof. Elam our thanks for his untiring, devoted and efficient work as our instructor.

2nd—That we tender to Prof. J. J. Dickey our thanks for his co-operation with us as teachers, and his untiring interest in the work of the institute.

3rd—That we appreciate the successful efforts of Superintendent Lacey in making the institute a success, also the patient and efficient work of J. W. Taulbee as secretary.

4th—That we, through Prof. E. E. Bishop, for his appreciation of the school work in giving to the teachers of Wolfe county the use of the school building during week of institute.

5th—That we extend to the people of Campton and surrounding country our heartfelt thanks for their hospitality and kindness during week of institute.

6th—That we condemn the present system of employing teachers in the state of Kentucky, and ask the next general assembly to devise some plan or enact some law that will stop bribery, corruption, etc., in the employment of teachers.

7th—That we, as teachers of Wolfe county, condemn the press for maligning and abusing the mountain people as a whole, as outlaws and uncivilized.

W. H. CHAMBERS,
JONATHAN E. CHILDERS, Com.
E. T. KASH,

Track laying along the Ohio and Kentucky railroad will begin about the 15th of the present month. From the point where it intersects with the L. & E. to Lee City the grading has been practically completed, and as soon as the rails are laid down the iron for the bridge across Kentucky river will be hauled to their destination and put in place, after which the road will be speedily constructed.

The editor of this paper paid a flying visit to the little city of Lee City on Saturday last, and was surprised to see the many evidences of business thrift and prosperity abounding. It was the first time we ever had the pleasure of visiting the place, which we think bids fair to be quite a business place as soon as the Ohio and Kentucky railroad is built to that point, and that will be within the next few months.

The Outlook for Hazel Green Academy.

The outlook for a large enrollment and attendance at Hazel Green Academy during the next session is very encouraging. More pupils than usual, are making inquiries about the course of study, the faculty, and the boarding department, and they are making known that they will patronize Hazel Green Academy during the coming session. The courses of study will be full and complete; the faculty will be equal to the best; the boarding department will be unexcelled. The session of 1900-1901 will doubtless be the best of any in its history. Do not fail to be present and enroll on the first day—Tuesday, September 11, 1900.

There are 139 illustrations in Biggle Cow Book, many of them made from photographs from life. There are eight colored paintings of as many different breeds. Biggle Cow Book is cream, rich Jersey cream—you ought to have it. Price is 50 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

Music at Hazel Green Academy.

Miss Mabel Grey Cross, who was in charge of the music class of Hazel Green Academy during the last session, will be in charge during the next session. She need no words of commendation from our pen, for her work here among her pupils speaks for her ability as a teacher. She is a thorough up to date teacher of music, and every one should take advantage of the opportunity offered here for obtaining a musical education. Let every pupil who wants such an education be ready to begin in her classes at the opening of the session—Tuesday, September 11th.

Among the registered guests at the Day House last week we note the following: Frank Stamper, Pat Howe and Weed Congleton, of Campton; George Salley, of the county; Dr. Breck Taulbee, wife and little boy, of Mt. Sterling; Mrs. John Craven, of McCausey, and John Lynch, of the world at large.

Henry Wilson, of Davesboro, on Thursday last bought of John Gose, of the same neighborhood, two blood bay geldings, half brothers and 6 years old each, for $200 cash in hand. They are 16 hands high with black manes and tails, work any where and are as sound as Spanish mill dollars.

A campmeeting will be held at Ezel, commencing Wednesday, Aug. 15th., under the supervision of Rev. Pike of the Methodist denomination. There will be several eminent ministers there who will take part in the services. Everybody is invited.

"An Empty Sack Cannot Stand Upright." Neither can poor, weak, thin blood nourish and sustain the physical system. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard purifier and true tonic for the blood. Hood's Pills do not gripe. All druggists, 25c.

Mrs. G. B. and W. L. Swango left for Nicholas county last Friday to attend the Dering campmeeting and hear Rev. Sam Jones, as well as to visit friends of G. B. Swango at Morefield.

Died, on Sunday morning at his residence on Lacy creek, Morgan county, H. M. Lacy, aged about 67. Mr. Lacy is the father of the wife of our worthy blacksmith, J. B. Davis.

John Higgins, colored, who has been ill with lung trouble for some time, had a relapse the other day, and is quite sick at the present.

John Pieratt requests us to make the announcement that he has leased a fine gray jack, which wants the farmers to call and see.

Mrs. John Craven, of Mt. Sterling, visited her sons, Willie and Robert, from Saturday until Monday.

We are one day late with our paper this week on account of the illness of our printer.

TRAGIC DEATH.

The Story of An Eye Witness to the Death of Gen. Lunar in the Philippines.

PANQUI, P. L., June 8, 1900.

To the Editor of THE HERALD: I send you the story of an eye witness to the death of Gen. Lunar in the Philippines. The story was given me in Spanish by Lt. Col. Abecellio, first on the staff of Gen. Lunar at that time. Gen. Funston was leading the advance up the railroad north from Manila during the months of April and May 1899, and the first of May found our boys in the town of San Fernando, about twenty miles north of Manila. During an attack on this place Gen. Lunar was dangerously wounded. The following story by Col. Abecellio will explain all that transpired from that time on to the day of his death, one month afterward: "The fighting was very hot," said the colonel, "and Gen. Lunar and staff were in a very exposed position. Lunar was sitting on his pony with his field glass directing the fire of his troops against the American lines. I was just behind him, and was intently watching the movements of the enemy. I could plainly see, by the aid of my glasses, the faces of Gen. Funston and staff about one mile from our lines. Gen. Lunar seemed to be directing the fire on Funston and staff, instead of the American soldiers. While the firing was warmest, Lunar turned to me and gravely remarked, that 'Funston was a brave man.' He had hardly uttered the words when a Springfield ball struck him in the right side, seriously wounding him. He fell from his horse in an unconscious condition. I sprang from my horse and restored him to life again by administering small quantities of brandy, the native drink. After he came to, I carried him off the field to a secluded village, miles away, where he was nursed for one month under my eye, before he was able to return to duty. Aguinaldo had been driven by this time to his mountain capital, Bayambau, on the Rio Grande river, one hundred miles north of Manila. Gen. Lunar and I went under disguise to that place, and reported for duty June 2d. He was at once assigned to his command and ordered to San Isidro, a town several miles southeast of Bayambau in the heart of the mountains. We arrived at that place after two days hard marching without food or rest. The evening we arrived at our destination, Lunar received orders from Aguinaldo to come back to Bayambau immediately with his entire command. He being tired, sick and not being fully recovered from his wounds, refused to comply with the order from his chief. Aguinaldo at once sent one of his captains to investigate the matter, for he suspected him of being in league with the Americans. The captain arrived and proceeded to pour forth upon the head of the gallant Lunar vile epithets, too dirty for a decent man to use. A quarrel was the result, and the captain ordered him under arrest by the order of Gen. Aguinaldo. Lunar resented this insult by striking him the Captain and placing him in irons. That night he managed to escape, and hired two cowardly cut-throats to kill the general next morning. The following morning, June 8th, Lunar and I were walking in front of the convent when we were fired upon by the two cut-throats employed to kill us. Gen. Lunar was shot through by a Mauser bullet, but managed to keep his feet, and pulling his gun succeeded in killing one of his slayers before the second ball ended his life."

It was a horrible sight. After he fell, two soldiers severed his head from his body and pitched it into a ditch near by. I went out and covered it with earth. Thus ended the career of the truest, bravest officers in the Insurgent army, Aguinaldo not excepted. I took command after his death, and surrendered the whole command to a Captain Rice, of the American army the next day. I am now a peaceful citizen of Luzon, and am anxious for American government.

This is the story given me by the above named Colonel, who is the most intelligent man I have ever met in the Philippines. He is of Spanish descent, and has a fine education. He is now a rice merchant, and it was during his stay at this place I met him, and heard the above story from his own lips. He showed me the receipt of his surrender to Capt. Rice; also his parole. Very respectfully,

GEO. C. TAULBEE,
Co. F, 12th U. S. Inf.,
